

discover together | South St. Paul

Kaposia Landing Grand Opening

April 22

Kaposia Landing

This engagement was hosted by Deb Griffith, Jen Mein, Jill Pittelkow, Luke VanHorn, Stephanie Radtke, Jodi Sandfort who connected with 50-60 members of the community.

QUESTIONS ASKED

- What are some must-sees and must-dos in South St. Paul?
- What local businesses do you enjoy?
- What do you see as some of South St. Paul's greatest assets?
- What questions do you have about South St. Paul?

TAKEAWAYS

- There is a lot of community pride in South St. Paul and appreciation of the many assets here (lots of community activities; places to play, eat, buy; sense of belonging)
- Having that small town feel but being near a big city is a unique aspect of South St. Paul people appreciate
- Some feel sense of community is being threatened
- Youth desire more things to do in South St. Paul and opportunities to have their voices heard on community issues
- This event drew a lot of born-and-raised members of the community
- There is a perception out there that Dakota County is buying up affordable housing for "problem people"